Chairman Word

The world of Shipping, Travel and Logistics is complicated and can face many obstacles. Moving successfully around these obstacles requires the ability to tackle each new challenge with fresh ideas, applying creativity, experience and expertise.

It takes a lot of passion to transform ideas into effective solutions – and even more to turn those into products and services which contribute to your success.

It is this passion for solutions that has made us one of the region leading Group of companies in this field. Whether your company is a multinational or a smaller enterprise serving international markets, our Group Companies Customer service team understands your needs and is determined to make the seemingly impossible become possible. Kadmar is aiming to be the top regional integrated service company providing range of services to its clients, We clearly defined our target and pride ourselves on our top class staff. We have good business plans, loyal customers ensuring a stable and long term business partnership.

We listen, design, implement, and monitor, as we are truly listening to our clients and understanding their business, trying to reduce the costs and increase the efficiency, innovating and motivating.

We maintain worldwide communication with our global facilities and clients. We are in our development process and have a clear vision of being One Stop Shop serving the industry from different angles; we are empowering our organization by allocating sufficient resources to achieve its objective.

Protecting the environment is very important to us, that's why we optimize our operations, and have a solid environment policy as we are committed to protect the environment.

We are looking forward to doing more business together and we strive for future success.

Thank you very much
